Introduction

The Workshop is the base for Yorkshire MESMAC in North Yorkshire. In 2002 it underwent substantial redevelopment, creating larger and more flexible space for community use.

We are keen to encourage use of this space by groups and agencies working with and for LGBT Communities, and also for agencies which are broadly sympathetic to our aims.

In this leaflet we are aiming to give an overview of the facilities available, but please contact us to discuss any specific needs.

Space Available

The Meeting Room has a top capacity of 20 participants, with flexible seating, as well as a more informal space with a sofa and easy chairs.

The Counselling Room has two two-seater sofas and floor cushions, and can be used as a breakout room, for breaks, or for one-to one sessions, which can also be booked separately.

There is also a lobby area which has break time seating, as well as a kitchen area for use during breaks.

Resources

The Meeting Room has a freestanding flipchart stand, a wall mounted wipe-board, and a TV/Video. We can arrange access to an OHP.

During office hours we are also able to offer standard admin support. There is also wireless internet access for Wi-Fi enabled appliances.

Access

The Community Space is all on one level, but does have a small step at the main entrance.
